CHILDREN AND YOUTH has nothing to report.

HISTORIAN Frank Wolf says he was told that Natalie Beil will be looking into the vacated room in the basement of the Community Building for our use as meeting area. Frank also says he sent to the newspaper the articles for our local police awards and about the Quilts of valor awards.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS on the matter of the Legion taking over the beer tent on Memorial Day, Frank Wolf motions to not do it, and Virgil Smith seconding. Motion carries. As for the missing markers in the cemetery Pam Greisen says the VSO says we need the names and dates of the deceased.

NEW BUSINESS from the last convention our post received a ribbon for getting 100% to quota for membership. We also received an award for membership retention. Also received was a American Legion blood donar award. We're checking with PT Arms for the use of their truck for WWdays parade. Phil will ask Steve Harrington to borrow truck to carry our flags. Phil motions and Virgil seconds to check on prices of candy to throw out at parade. Virgil checking with Joy from Gordons on food for the county meeting is Sept. Paul says the next brat fry is Sept. 5 at the Shell station.

CORRESPONDENCE received thank yous from Renee from Hardware Hank for working our brat stand at her loco for the locals market. From the chamber of commerce for our donation to the fireworks. The chamber is asking for donation for Wild West Days, and last we received a newsletter from Waunakee.

Les moves to adjourn with Frank seconding. Motion carries. Chaplain Smith leads up in benediction.
