MINUTES minutes were read with Phil Haas motioning to approve and Frank Wolf seconding. Motion carries.

FINANCE REPORT is read with $1,748.00 in the primary account and $120.76 in the secondary account. Talked to Mike Peterson to transfer monies to primary account for maintainance. Les Sander moves to approve and Frank Wolf seconds. Motion carries.

MEMBERSHIP Paul Maier says we are at 67% paid up and we need 21 to get to 100%. Welcome to your first meeting Lincoln Anderson. Hope to see you for many more. Paul also says that Matt Holler is retiring from the military and would like to stay with the Legion.

SICK CALL Phil Haas says Dick Royston fell and broke some ribs upon return from the Honor Flight, while others say they have seen him around town lately. Doesn't take Dick long to recover from broken ribs.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH County Government Days is still set for the 7th of April. School needs to be contacted on number of kids to attend and bus needs to be set up. Chaplain Smith says Pete from Argyle would be willing to talk with Constance Meinholtz about the oratorical scholarship contest, and we need to look for a candidate for that right away.

HISTORIAN Frank says there is no news yet on the basement meeting room. Frank is working on a list of former Legion members. Pam has posted bio's of recent members that have passed away in a life everlasting section on our website.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS Saturday Oct 17 is the District meeting in Barneveld if anybody would like to attend.

NEW BUSINESS Pam Greisen is asking Erland to check with Emblem Sales on the price of Legion labled table cloths to be used at our brat fries to dress it up a bit. As the shirts we presently now use for our meetings, programs, funerals, and all other gatherings are being discontinued, Erland Neindorf says the new ones will take 2 to 3 weeks to arrive from the company we get them from. Midwinter this year is in Middleton. Anyone wishing to attend times and dates to follow.
